Bethany Unlock

Solution: 2321

From “Are you or a loved on turning in to a Lycanthrope?” flyer.

Have you ever thought you or a loved one might be turning into werewolf? Here are the signs to watch for:

You anxiously pace around the room as the sun goes down.

Your nails grow longer and sharper.

You feel yourself getting stronger.

Your eyebrows grow closer and closer together.

You're exhausted after the full moon.

Your eyes start getting brown/yellow flecks in them.

You tend to get angry before the full moon.

Other useful werewolf facts:

Werewolves cannot stand a plant known as wolfsbane or aconitum.

Werewolves hate silver.

The easiest way to kill a werewolf is to decapitate them.

Moon Cycles/Man with Sunglasses

Solution: newwaxing

R= right

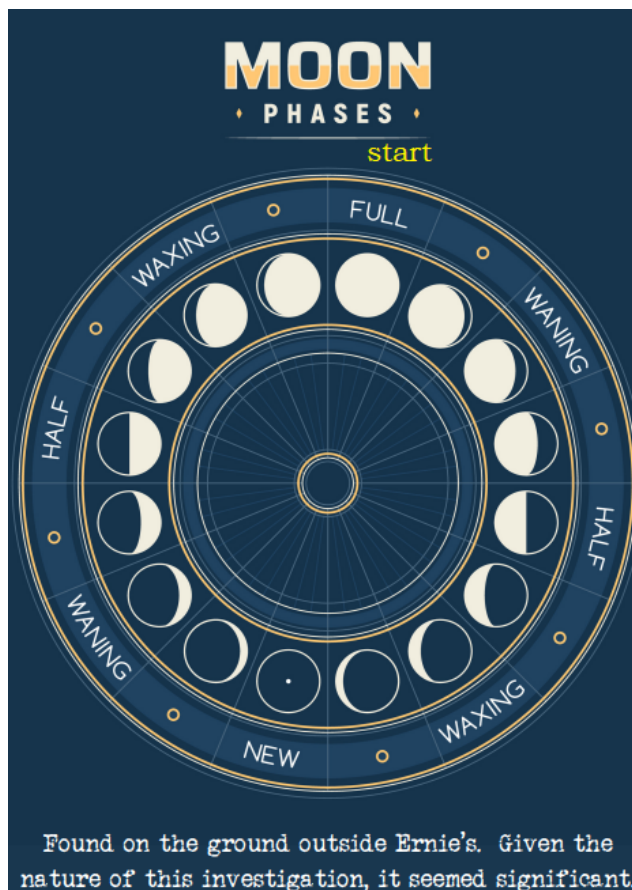

L=left

Bethany unlock:

Ever notice the mysterious guy who stands around the basement door out behind Ernie's wearing his sunglasses at night? He's more than a simple loiterer. He's there for a reason. Give him the password you come up with and you'll find out where one of your suspects was on the nights in question.

Do You Have Your Prime Suspect?

Solution: vincent

Confront The Liar

Solution: bethany

two bartenders on duty at the same time. Which means Bethany or Ernie is lying. Two, you based your entire suspect list on the fact that Ernie and Bethany were working on the nights of the murders (meaning they were both excluded from suspicion). All they did, in fact, was provide an alibi for each other. Given that one of the two people in question is the employer and the other is the employee, which do you think was most likely the one covering the shift? Hint, it's not the one who's name is on the bar, but you didn't hear that from me. Check it out. See if I'm right. Name the liar who actually went to work on those evenings.

Know The Identity Of The Killer?

Solution: howl152476

Liar unlock:

She told me that the key to getting in was to use the word that describes what wolves do at the moon and the numbers contained within a tattoo that Ernie has on his bicep. I've seen his ink enough times that I've been able to sketch a copy of it. For safe keeping, I had my drawing turned into a jigsaw puzzle. Start at midnight and go clockwise. The word and the numbers will get you in.
