THE MISSING KNIGHT

A fortnight ago the King's knights met to discuss the upcoming campaign against a rival kingdom.
However, the knight who sat in the third seat has been missing ever since.
There were five seats at the table.

Sir John only was sitting by one of the knights in the group.

Sir George was directly left of Sir Peter.

Sir Malcolm was in between the missing knight and Sir John.

Sir Peter was directly left of Sir Francis.

Sir Francis sat on the end.

Who sat where and who is missing?
