From Rodney's Unlock:

When building a toy, I will only use a human head. The chest has nothing green. The arms will have bracers or claws. And it has to wear pants.

From Sadao's unlock:

Here are half of the instructions you'll need.
My toy wears nothing on its head, wears clothing on its chest, wears nothing green on its arms, and doesn't wear brown shoes.

Numbers

You get this by using the instructions:

First group: no numbers are used, meaning it's not the numbers 2, 4, 6, or 8.

Second group: one is right, but in the wrong spot (So either 1 or 3 is correct but in the wrong spot).

Third group: 1 number is correct and in the right spot (So either 5 or 7 is correct and in the right spot).

Fourth group: two numbers are correct in wrong spots(so you now know that 1 and 5 are the correct numbers, also you know that 5 is the first digit based on the third group).

Fifth group: three numbers are correct, but only one is in the right spot (So, this tells me that 9 and 0 are also correct numbers. You already know about one from previous groups. You also know that either 9 or 0 is in the correct spot).

Sixth group: two numbers are right but in wrong places (With this you should be able to place all the numbers correctly. 5 is the first digit based on the info from the third and fourth groups. You know that 1 can't be the first, second, or last digit. So it has to be the third digit. This also means that 0 is the last digit and 9 is the second since these are the only spots that will make the previous statement true).

tragedy

Because 8 is equal to the lightning bolt, you're told in an unlock. So, you'll pull out all the 8's in order, and then connect them to the letter grid and get the word tragedy.
