Let's Move to Los Angeles postcard (addressed to Harrison McAfee)

1. Notice in the last sentence on the postcard that the word AFTER is in all caps. Also, notice the word that follows.
2. The word that follows is baby. View this as "AFTER baby." Notice that "baby" was used throughout the message on the postcard.
3. Pull out the word that comes after baby every time throughout the message.

Hand with strings

1. Read the interview with Allen Potts.
2. He tells you “Did you know that the thumb is special because it can help you grasp things? If you try hard enough you can grasp things with the other fingers, but it can be tough. That's why the thumb comes first as far as I'm concerned.”
3. Take the column of letters that relate to the thumb as the first column and then from there go in the natural order of the fingers for the remaining columns.(Thumb, index finger, middle finger, ring finger, pinky)
4. It might be helpful to re-write the columns of letters in the correct order. Then read through each row of letters in order to find the message.
5. The message starts with “The guards...”
